

THE GREENSBOROS

GREENSBORO

Edward Hall is visiting friends in Hardwick.

Irving Hull began working for A. B. DeBrune Monday.

Guy Rainier of Quebec is working for David Speir.

Mrs. Carl Philbrook has been quite ill the past few days.

The schools of the town closed Friday for a ten weeks' vacation.

Verne Slicer of East Craftsbury is working for Mrs. David Peel.

Miss Maude Lewis of East Hardwick visited Miss Bessie Silver last week.

Lester Perrin has had his house wired for electric lights the past week.

Samuel Pennock of Weston, Mass., is at the home of his sister, Mrs. Wallace Goss.

Congratulations are extended to Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Baker on the birth of a daughter, Feb. 23d.

Mrs. George Spier and son, William, were called to Morrisville Monday to attend the funeral of an aunt.

Ernest Johnson is soon to move his family to Claremont, N. H., where he and his son, Herbert, have work.

William Spiers pierced his foot with a hay fork last week and has been confined to the house several days.

Among those on the sick list are Delia and Jennie Olmstead, Donald Hays, Loretta Cassavah and Nina Lundsen.

Three candidates were given the first and second degrees at the meeting of the Caspian Lake Grange Thursday evening, March 9th.

John L. King took part of Adja McLellan's mail delivery route on town meeting day so that the latter could have opportunity to vote.

Fred Newton was unable to begin work this week on Mrs. C. B. Sparr's cottage, owing to the illness of his wife with typhoid pneumonia.

Little Gladys Philbrook, who was taken to Hardwick recently by her father, Carl Philbrook, to consult Dr. Darling, is reported some better.

Wallace Goss, who was reported very ill in our last issue, is not much better at this writing. Miss Ferrin, a trained nurse from East Hardwick, is caring for him.

The subject for the C. E. meeting at the Congregational church Sunday evening at 7 o'clock will be, "Getting Power from Our Pledge," and the leader will be an honorary member.

Merrill Sargent of Highwater, Que., is working for George Y. Simpson. Mr. Sargent's brother, Howard, came to the States with him and will probably work on some farm in this vicinity also.

L. B. Hardy, who has lived on the farm of Myron Kinney the past winter, moved with his family the first of the week to a farm five miles north of Newport, near the shores of Lake Memphremagog.

George W. Richardson, who has been quite ill for some time, is much better. The M. W. A. lodge of Craftsbury got together a few days ago and gave him an old-fashioned log rolling which resulted in a big woodpile for the use of the family the coming year.

The Caspian Lake Grange will hold a St. Patrick's social at their hall Thursday evening, March 16th. Hot coffee will be served to all by the Grange and there will be a short program. The ladies are requested to bring a basket lunch for two. Everybody will be welcome.

Miss Alice M. Dow, who recently graduated as a trained nurse in Philadelphia, is visiting at the home of her father, Sargeant Dow. Miss Dow will be here for several weeks after which she will return to Philadelphia to take up the profession of a trained nurse in that city.

Rev. E. C. Hayes of the Congregational church preached the second of a series of three sermons on Sound Living, at the service Sunday morning. The subject for next Sunday will be "Permanent Ideals." There was an excellent attendance at the session of the Sunday school Sunday.

The Wonder-Five basketball team of Hardwick played the local team more the Greensboro Giants, in the town hall Tuesday evening, March 7th. The local team won the game by a score of 39 to 29. There was some good work by individuals on both teams and the local five is showing considerable improvement.

The next meeting of the Caspian Lake Grange will be held at their hall Thursday evening, March 23d. It will be a "Maple Sugar Night" with the following committee in charge, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Outhbertson and Mr. and Mrs. J. M. DeBrune. The following program will be carried out: Trombone solo, F. W. Eastman; reading, Mrs. W. G. Bates; discussion, "Care of Maple Groves," led by J. I. Wilson and Foster Gebbie.

When Dr. Alber Kinney was returning from this place to his home in East Hardwick Tuesday evening of last week, he had what came near being a fatal accident. The sleigh tipped over near the Golf clubhouse and the doctor with the robes was thrown out of the sleigh. The horse became frightened and ran, pulling the reins from the doctor's hands. His little son, about two years old, was with him, but did not fall from the sleigh with his father. The frightened horse took the little fellow with him in his wild dash for home and the father ran to the home of A. E. Tolman for a team to follow. The horse was found below P. N. Allen's in a snow drift so tangled in the harness that he was quiet. The child was found in the sleigh unhurt.

There was considerable interest and a large attendance at the town meeting March 7. The warrant was a long one with some articles of unusual interest. In the election of town officers, contests developed in only three cases, viz., for selectman for three years there were three candidates, C.

B. Cook, A. E. Jackson and Harry Olmstead, the latter won; for road commissioner there were three candidates, J. D. Wilson, W. A. Allen and J. A. Kendrick, the last named winning out; and for town agent there were two nominations, J. G. Simpson and A. C. Chase, the latter winning the election. The list of the town officers elected will be found elsewhere. It was voted to raise 200 cents on the dollar of the grand list to pay all town expenses, $400 was voted to light the streets of the two villages, $1,000 was appropriated for permanent roads and the library was given the same as last year. The following articles were passed over: to erect a soldier's memorial monument, to enter on a plan of municipal improvement and to take up a uniform system of book-keeping for town officers. The local band was much disappointed to be refused $50 for ten concerts, five to be given in each of the two villages.

Mrs. G. W. Bates was given a surprise party Tuesday evening of last week, her birthday, by the cast of "The Deacon" and the ways and means committee of the Caspian Lake Grange. Mrs. Bates acted as coach in the preparation of the drama, "The Deacon," which was given twice this winter under the auspices of the Grange. The birthday cake was made by Mrs. Fred Cassavah, there was a recitation by little Martha Bates and an original poem written by Mrs. F. F. Wakefield, was read by C. H. Miller. Refreshments of sandwiches, assorted cake and coffee were served. Card playing helped to make the evening pleasant and the jolly crowd closed the evening with several popular songs about one o'clock. A sum of money was presented to Mrs. Bates. There were 21 present.

Original Poem Read in Honor of the Occasion.

"The Deacon," his family, guests and relation Met Monday night for a grand celebration, "The Deacon" you know is, a drama fine.

In which family, relations and "Deacon" did shine March sixth was the date, and of course they all knew It was the birthday of their old friend Lou.

She it was who bossed the show, And said, "Now repeat and do so and so."

"The Deacon" and the rest repeated the line, Then the boss would say, "you're doing fine."

But now let's tell of the birthday party And give three cheers and give them hearty.

For one who worked as hard as the rest, To make "The Deacon" a success.

A piano recital was given by the pupils of Harry D. Crowley at the Grange hall Saturday evening. There was a large attendance of parents of the pupils and others. There was evidence of much faithful work among the young musicians who took part.

Mr. Crowley is to be congratulated on the interest taken by both the scholars and their parents. Aside from some disarrangement of the program through illness and the evident nervousness of some of the young performers, the program was carried out in a most commendable manner. In addition to the piano music the reading of "Mary Cary" by Joyce Perkins and the singing of "Swimming Days," by Lloyd Batchelder were most enjoyable features of the program. The program in full was as follows: Duet, Bessie Silver and Loretta Cassavah; "The Use and Influence of Music," Rev. Mr. Hayes; "Pussy Cat Waltz" and duet, Evelyn Willey; "Favorite Waltz," Donald Hayes; song, "A Heart and a Rose," Dorothy Willey; "An Autumn Afternoon," Kathryn Hayes; "Moonbeams on the Lake," Christie Anair; "Cathedral Chimes," Loretta Cassavah; "Violets of Spring," Annabel Curtis; "To a Wild Rose," Tarrantella, Bessie Silver; reading, "Mary Cary," Joyce Perkins; "The Flower Song," Merle Hartson; "Oats, Beans and Barley," Lila Jackson; song, selected, Bessie Silver; waltz, Velma Anair; Duet, and "Little Romp," Warner Davis; "Dance of the Daisies," Sack Waltz; Mildred Johnson; "Golden Twilight," Dorothy Willey; duet, Edith and Eva Demars; song, "Swimming Days," Lloyd Batchelder; "Maypole Dance," Mabel Anair; "The Bell in the Valley," Velma Anair; "The Merry Farming Waltz," Annabel Curtis; "Farmer's Song," selected, George Bedell; "Let Us Try," Lila Jackson; "Narcissus," Loretta Cassavah; Life of Robert Schumann, Rev. Mr. Collins; "L'Allegro," Velma Anair; "Woodland Echoes," Merle Hartson; "Old Black Joe," (variations), "Simple Colours," (variations), Perry; song, "Mother Machree," Bessie Silver; duet, Merle Hartson and Dorothy Willey.

Say "So-CO-ny" to the Grocer's Boy

DON'T be satisfied just to say "Oh, yes, and fill my oil can." Know what it's going to be filled with.

It is now possible to buy kerosene by name and be sure of what you are getting. From now on, our kerosene product will be sold under the trademarked name Socony (So-CO-ny) Kerosene Oil. Ask for Socony and you're sure of getting the best.

Every gallon of Socony Kerosene conforms to definite quality standards. It is water-white in color, and burns cleanly without smoke, smell or wick-crust.

Socony Kerosene Oil is so much better than ordinary kerosene that it is decidedly worth asking for by name. Grocery, hardware and general stores which sell Socony Kerosene Oil all display the Socony sign.

Look for this sign. It is a quality sign—the sign of a reliable dealer.

We recommend the following oil burning devices as the best of their kind: New Perfection Oil Cookstoves and Water Heaters, Perfection Smokeless Oil Heaters, Rayo Lamps and Lanterns.
